Customer Reviews

I am a client of Dr. Lancer. I am semi-jealous of this book being offered to the world. Simply because I spent many hours over many months researching and reading any information that was offered by Lancer on skincare only for him to now reveal it all in one concise source and make it available for such a minute price. This man is indeed an expert on skincare. I am from rural Mississippi now living on the East Coast and travel monthly to Beverly Hills to Lancer Dermatology because I know there is no dermatologist better than Harold Lancer. His products are ground-breaking. My skin has been transformed and reinvented by his method which he shares with the world in his new book. If I had privilege to this book last year (although it was just released this year) then I likely would have discovered all the answers prior to becoming his client. However, because he guided me through his 3-step method & monitored my skin throughout the process, I gained a trusting relationship & bond with him and feel a special sort of comfort each time that I visit his office. So although I have access to his unique counsel, I am extremely grateful that he took time to scribe his advice and knowledge and make it accessible to the world because I know what it feels like to endure skin disorders. The book does reference his products in addition to others. I would have thought that he was crazy had he not referenced his products. Dr. Lancer is world-renowned! Why would he invest years into making outstanding products that do work & then not suggest them in his book that guides one in achieving younger sexy skin?! His book is not an advertisement of his products. His products speak for themselves and made him millions without any reference from his newly released book.
